

HR and Employer Branding Internship in Development Center Aarhus

Are you looking for a challenging and exciting internship position in HR and employer branding this fall?

We are looking for an adventuresome intern who is passionate about HR and employer branding. As an intern, you will gain valuable experience and be involved in several activities regarding employer branding and recruitment of new interns and student workers as well as project and university collaborations.

As an HR and employer branding intern you will take part in the entire recruitment process of new interns and student workers, from creating job adds, screening candidates, and performing interviews to the selection of the candidates. Furthermore, you will be responsible for job fairs and other activities at the universities that we collaborate with.

You understand the value of organizational ambassadors and messages when representing Danske Bank in job fairs and other events while working together with competent and experienced colleagues. Throughout this process, you will work with and receive support from qualified colleagues with experience from HR and IT.

What you will do:

- Take part in the entire recruitment process of 20-30 interns and student workers with various backgrounds (primarily within IT).
- Manage and participate in job fairs and events.
- Participate in further developing our strategic employer branding activities.
- Assisting your colleagues in their tasks where you will be assigned different HR tasks ad hoc.

About you: Dedicated and independent

You are studying a relevant Master's degree with a focus on communication and HR (ex. MACC, SOL, ITKO etc.).

You are inventive and imaginative and you like working independently. Creating and developing new ideas comes easily to you. You are outgoing and comfortable with managing tasks on your own even if they are challenging. You are structured and organized and you have experience with handling multiple tasks at the same time. You are fluent in both Danish and English.

We offer:

- Freedom with responsibility.
- An innovative and creative work environment with skilled and inspiring colleagues.
- An end-to-end insight in recruitment and other HR-activities.
- A learning process in cooperation with competent employees.
- Many exciting and challenging assignments.

Interested?

If you have any questions about the position, please, do not hesitate to contact us.

Send your application, CV and grades to Talent Consultant, Josefine Franklin Hansen, internship@danskebank.dk before 1st April 2018.

We hire on an ongoing basis, so send us your application as soon as possible. We look forward to hearing from you.

The internship will be 20 weeks from august 2018 to January 2019 and will, of course, fit in with your studies. You will be employed full-time but we are of course flexible towards any ECTS requirements regarding your study.
