

GUEST LECTURE ON

‘THE 1916 REVOLUTIONS: CONTEXTS AND CONSEQUENCES’

BY PROFESSOR JANE OHLMEYER
AND INTRODUCED BY THE IRISH AMBASSADOR TO DENMARK, HER EXCELLENCY CLIONA MANAHAN

---

The Easter Rising of 1916 was a failure militarily but it changed utterly the face of Irish History. It set in train an unstoppable process, which led to the separation of Ireland from Great Britain and accelerated the demise of the British Empire, which by 1914 traversed the globe. This talk sets the 1916 Rising in a wider chronological context, looking at the rise of nationalism in Ireland from the seventeenth century. It also explores the long-term consequences of the Rising for Ireland, Britain and the British Empire.

---

Jane Ohlmeyer is Director of the Trinity Long Room Hub Arts and Humanities Research Institute and the Erasmus Smith's Professor of Modern History at Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin.

She is currently Chair of the Irish Research Council and was the founding Vice President for Global Relations at Trinity (2011-2014).

Date: 28 April 2016

Time: 16:00 - 18:00

Place: Building 1441, room 112

The lecture is arranged in collaboration with the Irish Embassy and the Center for Irish Studies in Aarhus.